Social and Personal

THE wedding of Miss Nora Purcell Leary, daughter of Mrs. Nora P. Leary and the late Thomas Houghton Leary, and Stephen Haskett Derby, of San Francisco, son of Dr. and Mrs. Haskett Derby, of Boston, which was celebrated last evening at half-past 8 o'clock in the home of the bride, 1108 Grove Avenue, was a most important event in the calendar of social affairs for this season. Miss Leary has been, since her formal presentation to society, one of the most admired girls in Richmond, and her mother, formerly Miss Nora Purcell, was one of the belles of the former generation, and her old home in this city the gathering place for the wit and beauty of her set. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. William Remondino, S. J., cousin of the bride, before an improvised altar of acacia and lilacs and tall palms. Cathedral candles lighted the altar and vases of lovely flowers were also used to decorate it.

In the hall the balustrade was wound with a garland of Southern smilax and white flowers, and a group of palms and ferns crested the orchestra, which played during the evening. The dining room was also decorated in acacia and lilacs, and the mantels were banked with dahlias. The centerpiece for the table was also of lilacs arranged in a long oval, and the entire lower part of the house was decorated with the same flowers.

The bride entered the drawing room on the arm of her brother, John P. Leary, who gave her away. She wore an exquisite gown of soft white satin, with a tulle of white marquisette embroidered in lilacs and pearls. Rose point lace was used on the bodice, and the court train, also heavily embroidered in lilacs and pearls, was caught with clusters of flowers. She wore a tulle veil with a coronet of orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of lilacs of the valley. The bride was attended by Miss Jean Brevard Gannon, of New Orleans, as her maid of honor. Miss Gannon wore a gown of pale pink marquisette, made over pink messaline, and trimmed with wide bands of cream-colored lilac lace. She carried a shower of Killarney roses.

roses and lilacs of the valley. Arthur Lawrence Derby, of New Orleans, acted as his brother's best man.

Only the nearest relatives and friends of the bride and groom were present at the ceremony, which was celebrated very quietly, owing to the mourning of the bride's mother.

Guests from a distance were Mrs. Haskett Derby, Miss Elsie Derby, Dr. and Mrs. George S. Derby, Thorndike Endicott, Robert Houghton, all of Boston; Robert M. Derby, of Montreal, Canada; Mrs. J. Francis Damman, Mrs. Harvie-Inglish, of Baltimore; Charles Fenwick, Mrs. M. L. McCue, C. Purcell Meade, of Greenwood, Va.; Mrs. Reuben Satterthwaite, of Wilmington, Del.; Mrs. John Chapman Grey, of Boston.

Bridal Party Entertained.

Among the number of attractive functions that have been given for Miss May Carmichael previous to her marriage to Archer Hobson in St. Paul's Church this evening at half-past 8 o'clock have been some very pretty luncheons and teas. Miss Hobson entertained the bridal party on Monday evening at her home, 2 West Franklin Street, and Miss Elizabeth Agnew was hostess at luncheon at the Country Club of Virginia yesterday. The table was prettily decorated with flowers and greenery, and set in the sun parlor. Covers were laid for eight guests, which included the bride-elect and her bridesmaids.

The reception following the ceremony to-night will be given at the Jefferson Hotel by Mrs. Richard Rathbone Carmichael, aunt of the bride, and will include only the bridal party and the immediate families of the bride and groom.

Miss Reinhardt's Wedding.

Masses of pink azaleas and Easter lilies decorated the parlors of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Reinhardt, 12 Grace Street, yesterday evening at 6:30 o'clock, when their daughter, Miss Dora Belle Reinhardt, was married to William J. Hudgins, son of the late William Hudgins, of Norfolk. The Rev. Meade Clarke, rector of St. James Episcopal Church, performed the ceremony, and a stringed quartet played "To the Evening Star," from Wagner's "Tannhauser." Tall palms formed the background for the pink and white flowers that were used to decorate the hall and parlors everywhere, and Southern smilax was banked on the mantels with pink azaleas.

Miss Anne Louise Reinhardt was her sister's maid of honor and J. Thomas Stevenson, of this city, was the groom's best man. The maid of honor wore an imported frock of blue chiffon and messaline, handsomely embroidered, and carried an armful of pink sweet-peas.

The bride entered the drawing room with her father, who gave her away. She was handsomely gowned in white messaline, veiled with marquisette and princess lace and embroidered in pink and orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of lilacs of the valley and white sweet-peas.

A reception followed the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. Hudgins left for an extended Northern tour, which will include New York, Boston and Philadelphia. They will be at home after May 15 at 415 West Grace Street.

Guests from a distance included Mrs. William Hudgins, mother of the groom; Mrs. Post, William Banks, Harry Mason, Sidney Mason, Vernon Buford, all of Norfolk; Mr. and Mrs. James H. Tracy and children, of Tampa, Fla.; Miss Sallie River, of Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williams, of Charlotte, N. C.

Visiting Mrs. Hamill.

Miss Anne Keith Royal left town yesterday to spend some time at the home of her sister, Mrs. Barker Gunere Hamill, in Trenton, N. J. Miss Royal will be the guest of her sister at a big theatre party on her arrival in Trenton Wednesday evening, and a number of handsome entertainments will be given for her during her several weeks stay in that city.

Speaks in Birmingham.

A recent issue of a Birmingham paper contains the following item of interest to Richmond people:

"Miss Elizabeth Johnston, sister of the novelist, is visiting friends in Birmingham, Ala., where the family resided for many years. During her stay at the Cosmos Club, a newly organized woman's club, invited her to address their body upon the suffrage question. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Ethel Ames, that wonderful little woman, who has been likened to a man on the history of iron in Alabama. The attendance was large and the audience greatly interested. While the club does not espouse the cause of suffrage, its aim is to make inquiry into every question that affects the interests and welfare of people, and hence the invitation extended to Miss Johnston. The substance of the address by Miss Johnston proved most interesting, and she has received a great many compliments in consequence of it."

Stay at Home Whist Club.

The Stay at Home Whist Club met on Monday evening at the residence of Mrs. Arthur Cannon. Five tables were engaged, and the highest score was made by Miss Sue Gordon and William R. Robins. The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Basil D. Spaulding, 118 East Grace Street, on the evening of May 3.

Monthly Meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the Confederate Memorial Literary Society will be held this morning at 11 o'clock in the Confederate Museum. All members of the organization are urged to be present at this meeting, as a great deal of important business is to come up at this time.

Stokes-Wirgman.

The following from a Philadelphia paper is of interest here:

"Franklin Stokes, of Richmond, announces the engagement of his daughter, Miss Ethel Marion Wirgman, to Charles Pickett Stokes, of Richmond. Several years ago, has been one of the most popular members of the younger set in this city. She is a talented horsewoman and a family figure at all local horse shows. Mr. Stokes is equally well known in the South, where he is a member of one of the old Southern families. The wedding will take place next fall."

Mr. Stokes is a son of Mrs. Charles P. Stokes, of the Chesterfield Hotel, and a brother of Miss Aline Stokes and Mrs. E. Randolph Williams. He is most prominently connected here, where he has his home until moving to Philadelphia two years ago, and is still a member of several leading clubs in Richmond. Miss Wirgman is daughter here as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Williams.

Called Meeting.

There will be an important called meeting of the Junior Oakwood Association this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of the president, Mr. C. W. Maasie. All members are urged to be present, as much business will be transacted, and a full attendance is necessary.

Dance Last Week.

A very attractive event of last week was the German given by Miss Clara Long in the Barton Heights Assembly hall. The German was led by Hunter Jones and Miss Ray Wharton.

Among those dancing were Misses

Ray Wharton, Nancy Briggs, Begbie Hache, Louise Terrell, Zell Gentry, Louise Moors, Gladys Martenstein, Mary Brown, Ann Fleming, Nancy Graves, Louise Seay, Edith Moffatt, Louise Ramsdell, Graves, Alice O'Brien, Stewart, Fred, Bruce Fennelough, Leary, Courtney, Galecki, Genevieve Hughes, Effie Williams, Gay Richmond, Louise Chalkley, Allean Johnson, Gibbs, Timon, Clara Long, Mrs. McKee, Mrs. Ray, Hunter Jones, Beale Sale, Edgar Rose, Frank Farrow, William R. Robins, Joe Brent, Percy Yarborough, Thomas Ramsdell, William Drumheller, Letcher House, Tom Fletcher, Lewis Herndon, Lamar Tree, Allen Shepherd, Helen Graves, Edwards, Shield, McKee, B. Tiller, Howard Whitlock, Robert Pitt, Lewis Parrish, Jack Harris, Jim Strother, Philip Brown, John McCurley, Hersey, Williams, Harris, Dr. Smith and others.

Donati-Beck.

A very quiet but pretty wedding took place Sunday morning at 8 o'clock, when Miss Maude Lee Beck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Beck, of Lexington Heights, became the bride of John A. Donati, Rev. Father McKee performing the ceremony. Miss Helen L. Liggan, a cousin of the bride, was maid of honor, and Humbert I. Donati acted as best man. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Donati left for an extended Northern trip.

Musicales Thursday.

On Thursday of this week the students of St. Patrick's Female Academy, Corner of Twenty-fifth and Franklin streets, will give two very charming musicales for their friends and interested. The musical entertainment given in the afternoon will begin at 2 o'clock, and the negro minstrel show, "The Belles of Blackville," will begin at 8 o'clock that evening. The girls of the academy, who are all talented, and their various entertainments given during the school year are always most pleasing and largely attended.

PAINTED TROUBLE WITH FINGER NAILS

Sometimes Three Fingers Without Nails at One Time. Began 25 Years Ago. No Permanent Cure. Began to Use Cuticura Soap and Ointment. In a Short Time Nails Were Well. No Further Trouble.

"I have suffered from the same trouble (pointed finger nails) at different periods of my life. The first time of its occurrence perhaps twenty-five years ago, after trying home remedies without getting helped, I asked my doctor to prescribe for me, but it was not for a year or more that my nails and fingers were well. The inflammation and suppuration began at the base of the finger nail, and went down until the last period of inflammation, possibly not more than a week or two afterwards. These frequent inflammations resulted in the loss of the nail."

"Perhaps ten years later, I began again to suffer from the same trouble. Again I tried various home remedies, but without success. I was prescribed a course of medicine, but I had suffered from a like trouble. This seemed to help somewhat for a time, but it was not a permanent cure. Next I tried a prescription from my own doctor, but this was so irritating to the sensitive, diseased skin that I could not use it. I began to use Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I had used the Cuticura Ointment previously on my children's scabs with good effect. I did not use the Soap exclusively, but I rubbed the Cuticura on my nails better, and in a short time they were apparently well. There was no more suppuration, nor inflammation, the nails grew out clean again. One box of Cuticura Ointment was all that I used in effecting a cure." (Signed) Mrs. L. J. Horton, Katocty, Md., Apr. 13, 1910. On Sept. 21, Mrs. Horton writes: "I have had no further return of the trouble with my finger nails."

Sold everywhere. Potter Drug & Chem. Co., sole props., 139 Columbus Ave., Boston. Mailed free, samples of Cuticura Soap and Ointment, with 32-p. book on skin treatment.

The result of the luncheon commission called by Magistrate Chambers to examine the sanity of R. E. Cridde, of Swansboro, was reported this afternoon by Dr. Tucker and Dr. J. W. DeVal, secretary of the board.

At the examination held last Wednesday the physicians found the defendant sane, and they were of the opinion that Cridde's unbalanced condition was the result of too much stimulation, and would only be temporary. They expressed the desire to have Cridde under observation for a week, during which time the effects of the alcohol would have time to wear off.

A great deal of interest is exhibited among the Southsiders as to the findings of the commission, due to the fact that if he should be declared insane the grand larceny proceedings pending against him now for alleged theft of $500 from Liberty Council, Junior Order of United American Mechanics, would have to be dropped. In case he is found to be mentally sound he will be tried on the same charge as he is now held at present, and in addition will be charged before Judge Chambers on the charge of being a drunkard.

On Monday morning Cridde is alleged to have become violent from the excessive drinking of liquor, and to have put the residents around his house in a state of siege after having injured several people. He has been confined in the City Jail since that time, and the case of his recent arrest he was out on a bail.

Hishop Chandler in French.

It was reported by the Southern Methodist Church, which will occupy the pulpit of the Central Methodist Church Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, that the Rev. Henry C. Pfeiffer, will preach at the evening service as usual.

Hishop Chandler, through his established reputation as a preacher and the high place he occupies in the affairs of the Southern Methodist Church, will probably attract a large congregation Sunday. Mr. Pfeiffer says that he expects a great crowd of Southside Methodists to suit his purpose.

Both the suits scheduled for hearing yesterday and Monday in the Hustings Court, involving the Southern Railway and the opposing counsel. They will come up for trial either toward the close of this term or the beginning of the next.

Believes that a postponement of the suit scheduled for this morning will be asked. The court is occupied in the consideration of several cases of great importance.

Saturday will be given over to the issuance of city liquor licenses for the coming week. The local board of health in Richmond have given notice of their intention to apply for a renewal of their license, the remaining ones being the City of Henric, Va., and the City of Norfolk, Va.

No indications have been given that the court will refuse to renew any license.

In Police Court.

Two diminutive negro boys, charged with "hopping" freight cars and attempting to steal a pair of shoes, were brought before the court with a warning by Justice Maurice in the Police Court, Part 2.

William Wall and James Green, both colored, were arrested yesterday afternoon, charged with fighting in the street. Both negroes were bailed for their appearance in Police Court, Part 2, this morning.

Andrew Sturdivant, a negro, charged with skipping his board bill, was dismissed by the court, as the defendant had made satisfactory arrangements had been made between the anxious landlord and the wily Andrew.

To Give Recital.

Prof. W. Henry Baker, organist at All Saints' Episcopal Church and director of the Richmond Philharmonic Orchestra, will give a joint recital Friday night in the Baltimore Street Baptist Church with Mrs. R. P. Shiffert, Miss Virginia Baker and Miss Dora Baker. A charming program of selections has been prepared, and Southsiders will have an opportunity of hearing music of a class that is not frequently offered on this side of the river.

Mrs. Shiffert, with her pleasing soprano voice, has already won laurels at South Richmond; Miss West, mezzo soprano, is also not unknown and admired over her for the beauty of her execution, but Prof. Baker and Miss Dora Baker, violinists, have never played before a Southside audience.

Personal and General.

Mrs. R. F. Ellington has gone to Greensboro, N. C., to visit friends.

Miss Goldie Williams, of Eleventh and Hull Streets, was confined to her home by illness yesterday.

Stonewall Jackson, Fraternal Order of Eagles, will meet to-night at 8 o'clock in Fraternity Hall.

The Rev. G. T. Forrester and the board of the Decatur Street Baptist Church are actively engaged in pressing the campaign for the subscription of the $500 which must be raised by next Monday night in order to liquidate the debt on that portion of the new house of worship which has already been erected. Fourteen hundred dollars has already been raised in a ten-day campaign.

Stuart Lodge, Independent Order of Odd-Fellows, met last night in the Odd-Fellows' Hall.

Liberty Council, Junior Order of United American Mechanics, held their regularly weekly meeting last night in their lodge rooms in Carley's Hall.

The members of Lily Council, Daughters of Liberty, held their usual weekly meeting last night at 8 o'clock in the City Hall.

Manchester Lodge, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, will meet to-morrow night at 8 o'clock in the Elks' Home, South Richmond.
